

CRANLEYS ARE SAFE IN NEW YORK

Story That Former Rushville People
Were Victims of Interurban Wreck
is Proved Untrue

MESSAGE FROM ROCHESTER

Rumor that James Cranley, Wife and Daughter Were Burned to Death
Feb. 2 Gains Wide Circulation

That Mr. and Mrs. James Cranley and infant daughter of Indianapolis, formerly of this county, were among the unidentified victims of the Union traction company wreck near Fortville, Ind., Saturday night, February 2, was a story that had gained wide circulation since Tuesday evening and which was not disproven late this afternoon, when the Daily Republican received an answer to a telegram inquiry, stating that Cranley and his wife and baby were stopping with his brother in Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Cranley and child have not been seen since the early part of the week the traction wreck occurred, and relatives have had no word from Mrs. Cranley, who was formerly Miss Mary Jane Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Anderson of Mays, since January 9, when Mrs. Cranley left home with her child while her parents were away.

Mr. Cranley at one time resided in Rushville, but most of the time since his marriage has been employed in Indianapolis. He worked in Caron's candy kitchen while a resident of this city.

The suspicion that Mr. and Mrs. Cranley and daughter might have been burned to death in the interurban wreck was conveyed to the Indianapolis News and an inquiry was made here late Tuesday to determine the whereabouts of Mrs. Cranley.

Mrs. Flora Anderson, her mother, stated last night that she had not seen her daughter since January 9, when she left home without her knowledge, to join her husband in Indianapolis.

Inquiry at the Columbia cafe in Indianapolis, where Mrs. Cranley was employed, brought the information that she had not been employed there for six weeks, indicating that she had left that employment about the time of the wreck.

Mrs. Ozro Draper of near Occident north of Rushville, informed Mrs. Anderson that she saw Mr. and Mrs. Cranley and their child in the Traction Terminal building in Indianapolis either on Monday or Tuesday, January 28 or 29. This was the same week as the interurban wreck.

Mrs. Anderson called by telephone last night, Mrs. Baell Graham of Indianapolis, formerly Miss Mildred Madden of this city, a close friend of Mrs. Cranley, and found that she had not seen nor heard of her for two months.

Rushville friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cranley said that they had intended to go to Rochester, N. Y., where Mr. Cranley's relatives live, but it was thought strange that if they did go to Rochester, some word would have been received by some of their friends or relatives.

Mrs. Cranley had relatives at Anderson, Ind., and she and her husband lived there for a short time, it is said. For this reason it was regarded as probable that they might have been on the doomed interurban car which was bound for Anderson when it collided with a car going in the opposite direction.

The remains of four or five bodies of unidentified victims of the wreck have been buried at Anderson. There is also the skull of a baby which has never been identified and two baby rings, the ownership of which has never been determined. All of this fit into the story as it was unfolded.

Mrs. Cranley was a school teacher before her marriage and has taught at Webb school, southwest of Rushville, and Henderson and Osborne schools in Jackson township.

FOR SELLING CIGARETTES

Al Linville today paid a fine of $10 and costs, amounting in all to $17.75, after pleading guilty in Justice Stech's court to selling cigarettes to a minor, Harold Jeffreys, a high school student.

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

Lawrence Easton is confined to his home in East Second street, suffering with pneumonia.

MRS. ANNA NOLAN

Former: Rushville Woman Expires in Indianapolis Today

Mrs. Anna Nolan, widow of Richard Nolan, formerly of this city, died today at noon at her residence in Indianapolis, death resulting from cancer of the liver.

The deceased was a sister of Thomas Canley of Kansas City, who lived here until recently. Funeral arrangements were not completed today, but will be held in Indianapolis and with burial in that city.

The deceased was well known in Rushville and has many friends living here. She is survived by four daughters and a son.

PRINCIPALS MEET THURSDAY NIGHT

Township School Authorities Will Arrange For County Music Memory And Latin Contests

BOTH TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

New Salem School Placed on Continuous Commission Basis, Making Three in the County

The principals of the county schools will be in session Thursday night in the office of B. D. Farthing, county superintendent for a special business session, during which time several matters will come before them.

Arrangements for the county music memory contest and the county Latin contest will be taken up, as these two school events are scheduled for the latter part of next week.

Plans for the annual county track and field day also will be discussed and a date decided upon. The first meeting of this kind was held last spring, but rather late and several county high schools had closed and did not get to take part. This year it is planned to hold the event earlier, and every high school will have a chance to compete for honors in track and field events.

The New Salem School has been placed on a continuous commission basis, according to word received this morning from the state department, and following an inspection of the school recently by W. E. Waggoner. This makes three schools in the county on the continuous basis, with Manilla and Webb having been on before. Carriage will be on the same basis when their new building is completed.

A continued commission for a school means that no further inspection will be necessary.

FUNERAL IS HELD AT MAYS

Services For John Samuel Parker,
Who Died at Connersville

The funeral services for John Samuel Parker, who died Monday at noon at the home of his grand daughter, Mrs. Henry Ingram in Connersville, were held this morning at the Mays church and interment took place at the Blue River cemetery.

Mr. Parker was 82 years of age and was a former resident of Center township, this county. Fifty-two years ago last Christmas eve he was married to Miss Martha J. Kirkpatrick of this county, who survives him. Besides the widow he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Lillie Clemons of Indianapolis, four grandchildren and one brother, James Parker of Williamstown and two great grand children. He was also a member of Phoenix Lodge No. 62, F. & A. M., of this city, having been a member since 1865. He also was a member of the Sandusky M. E. church.

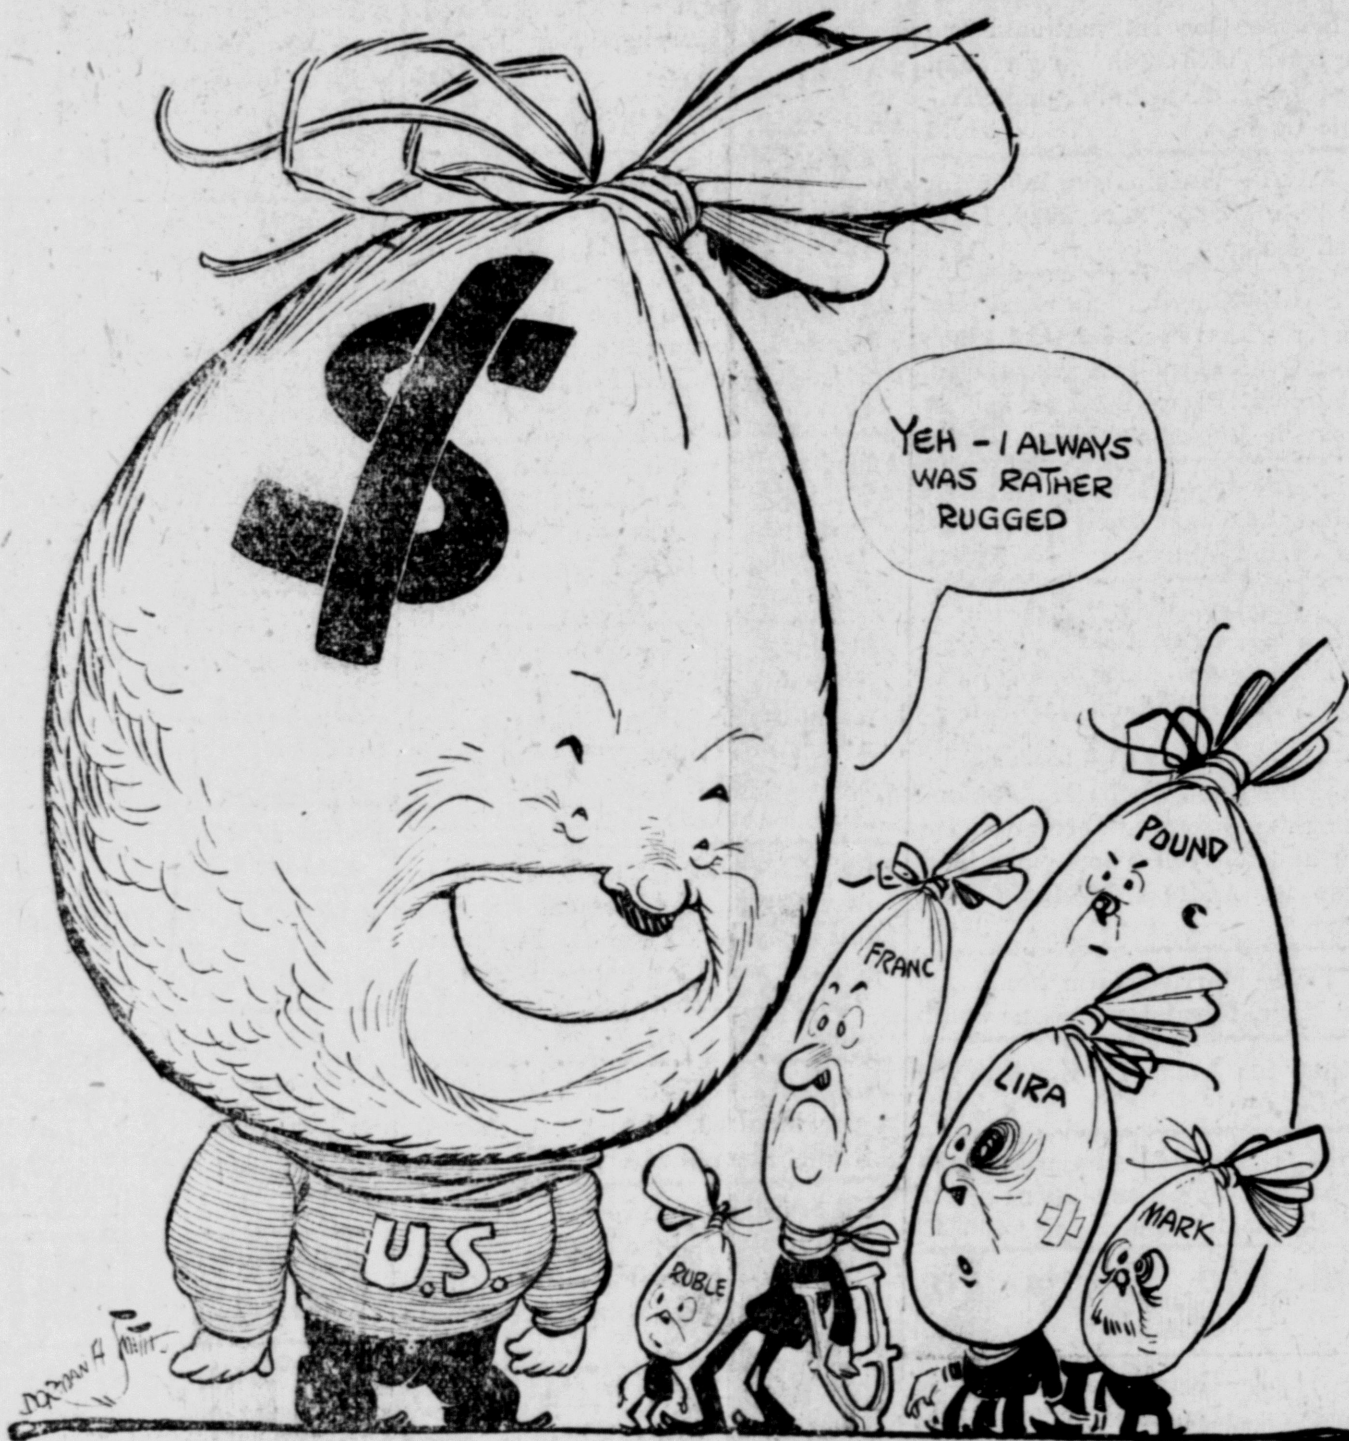

HARRY WYATT RECOVERS

Harry Wyatt of George C. Wyatt & Co., has recovered from an illness with a throat infection, which is said to be epidemic in Rushville.

CHURCH BOARD TO MEET

The board of Deacons of the First Presbyterian church will meet Thursday evening at seven o'clock in the church, for their regular business meeting.

SAYS COMPANY C IS NOT DISBANDED

Capt. Will B. Brann Expects Order to Muster Out Rushville Guard
Unit Next Tuesday Night

REASON FOR THE ACTION

Failure of Guardsmen to Report For Drill Assigned by Captain—Accounts For Robberies

Company C, Rushville's national guard unit, over which there has been much speculation recently, held their regular meeting last night, and members of the company were asked to bring with them all equipment that had been loaned them by the government.

The company has been mustered out of service, according to an Indianapolis dispatch, but according to Captain Brann, no date has been received by him for the disbandment of the company, and he expects that the official work will be done next Tuesday night.

Captain Brann stated today that the reports from Indianapolis to the effect that the company here had been mismanaged by its officers, were untrue and that the reason that the company was mustered out of service was because of the fact that the members failed to report for weekly meetings, and that the attendance at the drills has reduced the standing of the local company.

The fact that the armory is an open building, and is easily reached by robbers, is given as the reason for the thefts, as a considerable amount of the equipment has disappeared in the past few months.

When the company here is mustered out, Captain Brann expects to be attached to the state staff of officers in the national guard, he said.

WATSON NAMED CHAIRMAN

To Conduct Bureau of Internal Revenue Investigation

Washington, March 12—Senator James E. Watson, Indiana, was today appointed chairman of the senate committee to investigate the bureau of internal revenue.

The appointment of the Indiana Senator came as the result of the passage of the Couzens resolution, which called for such a probe of that department.

Just what trouble is believed to be hidden in the revenue department, has not been disclosed.

TO START DAUGHERTY PROBE

Senate Committee to Hold First Open Session at 4 P. M.

Washington, March 12—The Daugherty investigating committee will hold its first open session at four o'clock this afternoon, Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, announced.

Brookhart declined to state what would be the subject of the first session or who the witness would be but said that "an important matter" would be under discussion.

Information obtained by Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, on a mysterious out-of-town trip, is believed to be responsible.

SURPLUS IN DOG FUND DISTRIBUTED

Balance Held by Each Township
Trustee, Turned Over to County
Auditor and Pro-rated Back

SCHOOL ENUMERATION BASIS

Fund Derived From Dog Taxes And Used During Year to Pay Claims
—Balance Goes to Schools

The surplus dog fund has been distributed among the townships and school corporations of the county, it was announced today by Phil Wilk, county auditor, and checks have been mailed to the township trustees and to the treasurer of the Rushville school corporation.

The law provides that the township trustees shall turn over to the county auditor by the first Monday in March all of the money left in the dog fund, which is made up of dog taxes collected by the township assessors, and that the auditor shall distribute it among the townships and school corporations on the basis of the number of children of school age enumerated.

Rushville, although showing no money turned in from the surplus dog fund, receives the most back, because of having a larger number of school children. Receipts from dog taxes in Rushville city pass through the hands of the Rushville township trustee.

The trustees pay out of the fund during the year, all claims for livestock killed by dogs, and retain $100 to meet claims until the spring dog taxes begin coming in, when they turn over the surplus to the auditor. Rushville school city, with 1284 persons of school age enumerated, received $875.74, and $164.88 went to the state as its five percent of the total distributed—$3,297.50—as provided by the law.

The amount each township trustee turned over to the auditor and the amount received back in the distribution is as follows:

Township	Paid In	Received
Ripley	90.00	308.28
Poser	346.00	238.03
Walker	376.00	196.43
Orange	238.60	162.33
Anderson	412.40	223.03
Rushville	320.00	204.61
Jackson	266.00	92.08
Center	366.50	161.64
Washington	3.50	165.74
Union	340.00	210.07
Noble	148.50	160.96
Richland	390.00	133.68

The enumeration by townships, on the basis of which the distribution was made is as follows:

Ripley, 452; Poser, 349; Walker, 288; Orange, 238; Anderson, 357; Rushville, 300; Jackson 135; Center, 237; Washington, 243; Union, 308; Noble 236; Richland 196; Rushville city, 1248.

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT

Roy Whittaker has filed an affidavit in Justice Stech court against Jesse Nicholson, charging him with assault and battery. The defendant will be tried on the charge Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. The suit for possession filed by James Dugan against John Colvin, has been dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff.

EAGLES HOLD BANQUET

The Rushville Eagles held a smoker and talk-fest Tuesday night at their lodge home in West First street which was also followed by a chicken banquet. Seventy-five members of the lodge were present, and a delightful evening was spent.

CURT REFUSAL TO PLEA IS EXPECTED

Congress Not Likely to Grant Request For 25 Percent Cut in '23
Income Taxes

MADE BY PRES. COOLIDGE

Unless Congress Passes Resolution,
Treasury Will be Powerless to Re-
bate, Officials Say

Washington, March 12—The 25 percent tax cut asked by President Coolidge would mean a saving of $458,888,241 to the taxpayers if their incomes in 1923 were the same as in 1922. In 1923 tax payers paid a total of $1,835,552,966.22 on their incomes for 1922. If the retroactive rebate goes through congress, taxpayers could lop off one entire quarterly installment.

By FRAZER EDWARDS

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 12—A curt refusal today appeared certain to congress' reply to President Coolidge's urgent request for an immediate 25 percent reduction in 1923 income taxes.

As a result taxpayers must pay their full amount for taxes. Unless congress acts the treasury department will be powerless to rebate officials there stated.

House leaders were unmoved by Mr. Coolidge's request yesterday urging immediate adoption of the resolution permitting taxpayers to deduct a quarter of the tax. He pointed out that many of them had delayed making returns in expectation of the reduction.

Chairman Greene, chairman of the house ways and means committee declared today that the plan is impossible. We cannot pass the resolution in time to affect the taxpayer who must begin paying on Saturday. The house has already adopted the provision in the tax bill and is unwilling to consider it as a separate measure.

Some members of the house, including Representative Garner, Texas, said the president waited with his message until it was too late for his action to be had.

"It is hard to understand," said Garner, "why the president did not urge this matter earlier, in view of the importance he attaches to it." The house's unwillingness to act is based on the fear of many members that if the 1923 taxes were reduced, the president would veto the tax bill. While the 1923 reduction clause is in the bill they feel he will not dare veto it.

Senator Smoot and other members of the senate finance committee said the senate probably would adopt the resolution but that it was clearly impossible in view of the opposition in the house to get separate legislation through by Saturday.

Congressional leaders and officials at the internal revenue bureau agreed there was no way for the treasury to provide for a rebate by regulation.

"The taxes are fixed by law and the treasury has no power to change them in any way," it was stated on behalf of Secretary Mellon. "If congress does not provide for the reduction, there is nothing for the internal revenue bureau to do but collect the full tax."

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Frank and Anna Carroll Estranged
Due To Divorce Suit

Elkhart, Ind., March 12—Waiting for Anna Carroll, his estranged wife as she went to work at a local factory today, Frank Carroll, 40, shot and instantly killed her and then turned the revolver on himself.

He died a few minutes later. His wife had brought suit for divorce a week ago and had taken a position in a factory to support herself.

Carroll had been arrested several times in recent months for intoxication. Officials said he had been drinking heavily last night and early today.

GUARANTEE OF BUSINESS INSURED BY CONTRACTS

Successful co-operatives are founded on an enforceable contract between the association and the member, by which the member is bound to sell and deliver his commodity to the association over a period of years, and the association is bound to receive, grade, store ship and sell the product to the best possible advantage, wherever a market can be found, and to pay the member for his wheat the average price received, less the usual cost of operation.

The contracts are made binding and for a period of years so that the offices may be properly established and competent men secured to carry on the business. The "co-op" with a binding contract has a guaranteed volume of business for a certain length of time.

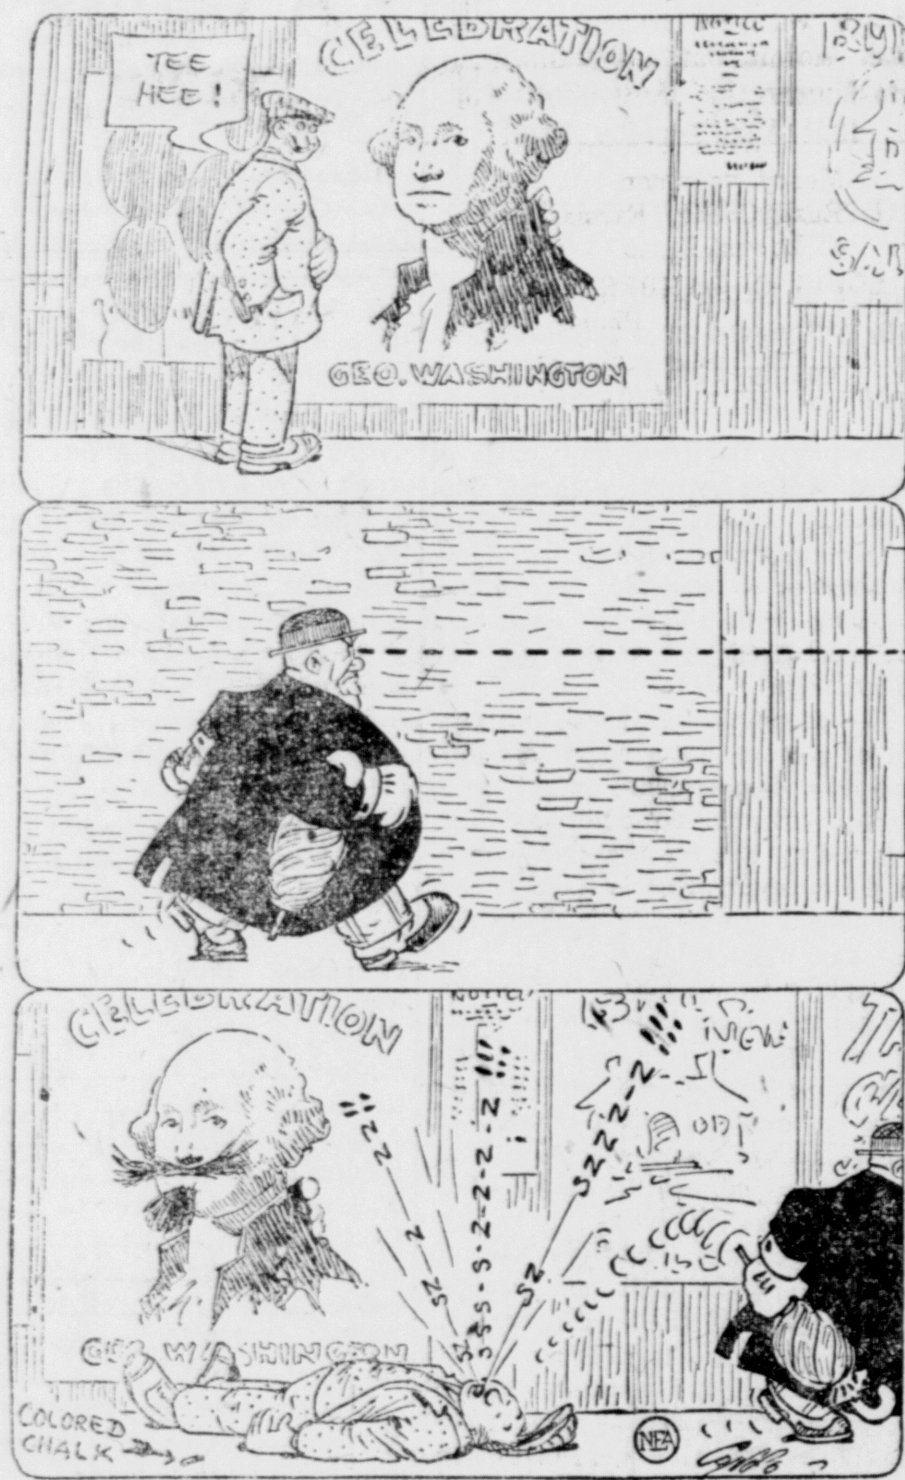

SHORT ROAD TO MARKET: LARGER RETURN OFFERED

The net result of co-operative marketing as observed over many years of successful operation has been to set up a better, shorter and more economical method of distribution, to shorten the distance between the producer and the consumer, to bring back to the producer these means, a larger proportion of the consumer's dollar.

Add to this the fact that to bring the farming half of the population a larger return and consequence a greater buying power, creates a greater demand and a better market for the services and the products of the other half and you have summed up the benefit of co-operative marketing to every portion of the economic structure.

passed by the house, is going to find rough seas in the senate, because opponents of the automobile manufacturer, who do not favor permitting any man to acquire such an outlay of property at government expense, have already raised a barrier across the path of the measure which has been approved in the lower house.The barrier is in the form of a bill proposing a "super-power system" to conserve, develop and operate all natural resources. It is the answer of the public ownership group to the Ford program for Muscle Shoals.An examination of the Ford offer shows very little to recommend it, especially when it is compared with the Hull bill, pending in the house which is based on an offer of $15,000-000 for what Ford agrees to pay only $5,000,000.In addition to this, the United States leases for 100 years the water-power plants to Ford, with privi-provides that leases shall not be granted for more than fifty years.The United States agrees, under the terms of the McKensie bill, to deed to Ford, nitrate plant No. 1, costing $12,888,000; nitrate plant No.

2, including 90,000 horsepower steam plant costing $66,252,000; the Waco quarry, costing $1,363,000 and a new 40,000 horsepower steam plant and by transmission line to be erected by the government at a cost of $3,472,- 000. This represents a total outlay of $83,915,000, for which Ford would pay the paltry sum of $5,000,000, and in addition the United States agrees to maintain nitrate plant No. 2 at a cost of $100,000 a year.The bill does not attempt to regulate any rates that Ford may charge, with the exception of fertilizer, and Ford is not compelled to make any promise as to amount or cost of power.Mr. Ford's fortune has already become an intolerable burden, unless given a productive outlet by scores of millions; and still he is trying to add to it. He can not now personally touch his undivided profits without touching his undivided profits without paying to the government. At least half of them in additional personal income taxes.So he turns to Muscle Shoals, promising to throw the Ford millions behind the upbuilding of a great city
"75 miles long" if he receives the wonder property.Mr. Ford's only promise to the people is to "limit" himself to 8 percent on the possible 100,000 horsepower necessary to manufacture 40,000 tons of nitrate content fertilizer. The remaining 750,000 horsepower would belong to him for the glorification of Ford City, the Ford industries and the Ford fortune.Given Muscle Shoals on his terms, Mr. Ford's fortune of today, and all of the fabulous fortunes of history would fade into insignificance.Passing It OnA wage earner—one of apparently very moderate income—wrote to a Congressman urging reduction of the high surtax rates of the present income tax law. The Congressman replied with a very caustic letter asking the wage earner what interest he had in the reduction of the high surtax rates since his income must be so small as not to be affected by the rates on large incomes.The question seems plausible on its face and yet anyone who stops to consider the matter for more than one minute will readily understand that the wage earner knew what he was talking about and the Congressman did not.As a matter of fact the small wage earner is not at all interested in the reduction of the income tax rates on small incomes for he pays no income tax directly. His income in most instances is so small as not to exceed his exemptions. But the small wage earner pays indirectly the high surtax rates on large incomes. The manufacturer, the professional man, the corporation operating large transportation or public service concerns, pays a heavy income tax and adds that tax to the cost of doing business and necessarily that cost is included in the prices charged for goods or services. The consumer or the patron pays the tax in the end.This is a fact that no one will question when he analyzes the effect of taxation, and yet it is a fact that a great many people overlook.Tom theatre today, Dorothy Mackaill plays the role of a wife who has lived alone in Paris for three years.

During her husband's necessary absence in the Argentine, she becomes interested in a Spaniard. Upon her husband's return to Paris, she accepts an invitation to visit the Spaniard nobleman at his lodge in the Pyrenees before she parts with him forever. When she arrives, she finds that she has been tricked and that she is the only guest where she expected to find a house-party.She prepares to leave at once but the Spaniard throws open a casement window to show that the sudden storm which has broken over the mountain prevents her return to the station. The wind drives the rain through the window, ruining the gown which Dorothy Mackaill wears.Made of the new material known as spun glass velvet, the gown is of rare Lavin green. According to its designer, the material has the qualities of velvet and weighs no more

Harcourt's play by the gifted scenar-ist, Julia Crawford Ivers, was skillfully directed by the capable Walter Edwards, and the cast contains prominent actors and actresses, whose names have long been associated with well-earned popularity.
"A Lady's Name" is at the Castle today and Thursday.The delightful and accomplished Constance Talmadge never had a more suitable vehicle for her talents than this sparkling photoplay, which gives her every opportunity to display her versatility. As the novelist she is charming, as the butler's sweetheart and cook amusing, and appealingly winsome as the fiancée of the butler's master.Harrison Ford, who plays the male lead, presents a well finished interpretation of the part, and Emory Johnson is most convincing as the priggish fiancée. The suffragette role is excellently and amusingly played by Vera Doria while Lillian Leighton as the sentimental cook and Za-su Pitts as the maid, live up to their reputations of clever actresses.The entire production of "A Lady's Name" is also a criticism and satisfies the most fastidious taste. It is not only well worth the original time, effort and expense which was lavished on it, but is deserving of the additional money and labor which is attendant upon its revival.SAFETY SAMAn Indiana horse bit off its driver's

HITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

Another Boquet Blows In Milroy, Ind.

Dear Hittin' 'Em—
Despite the best efforts of us all, basketball is a thing of history in Rush county; but I feel it not amiss to bring up the subject since we are still "picking" a state winner.
In behalf of the team and Milroy fans, I wish to compliment you on your column and thank you for the courtesy extended to us through it. Please extend my regards to the other coaches and teams of the county. When we have been unfortunate you have encouraged, and when we have won, you have given us credit. In all your good wishes have, we feel, been sincere and as hearty as could be expected of anyone toward a traditional rival.
With the best personal regards and wishes for you, your column and the Rushville team, I am,
Sincerely Yours,
PAUL ROYALTY

These are kind words, Mr. Royalty. Thanks very much. It has been the policy of this column all year to deal with all teams as equally as possible, and to help the schools become closer friends. We were certainly sorry that Milroy couldn't have won from Connersville in the final game, because we feel sure that you could have piloted your boys through the regional with more ease than Connersville, and besides it would have helped the interest in the county for the Milroy team. Better luck next time.

The days of this column are getting fewer and fewer, and if any contrib has anything to speak, do it quick, or as the old sayin' is, forever keep your peace.

The city council of Shelbyville meets every Friday night—that is it used to before the basketball season. They have been holding short sessions all winter so that members could attend the games. Business will soon be back to normal.

Everything But Move The Court House

If Shelbyville wins the state tourney, the town of Homer in this county should celebrate in big style, and what is more, Rushville would help 'em do it.

If you want a new gym in Rushville next year, now is the time to get busy. Talk to the members of the school board—Russ Casady, "Doc" Wyatt and Mrs. Aldridge. Let's put it over.

ALL THE REST ARE MERELY "DUBS"

Muncie is out of the running for the title. So are Vincennes, Columbus and several others of the stronger ones. At the state tourney this year will be seen Richmond, beaten by Muncie 20 points, which goes by virtue of a soft schedule in the regionals; Rochester, North Manchester, Fort Wayne, Liberty, Center, Logansport, Connersville, and some more so-called "dubs". All thanks to the wise gentlemen who make up the board of representatives which controls the Indiana High School athletic association. What a tournament that's going to be with only a few good teams, Anderson, Shelbyville, Bedford, Frankfort and Martinsville.
—Muncie Press

First, Maybe The Last Time

For the first time, under the present plan of elimination, the Connersville high school basketball team will be represented in the final tournament play at Indianapolis, as a result of their victories at the regional in Richmond. A state champion will be crowned at the finals in Indianapolis Friday and Saturday of this week.
—Connersville News

The Roll Call Has Dwindled

But six teams that were in the state final high school net tournament last spring at Indianapolis will be represented in the 1924 classic next Friday and Saturday. They are: Morgan, (Richmond), Frankfort, Franklin, Martinsville, Anderson, Bedford.

The new teams listed in the 1924 event are: South Side (Pt. Wayne), Michigan City, Wiley, (Terre Haute), Rochester, Shelbyville, North Manchester, Logansport, Otterbein, Connersville, and Liberty Center.

When it comes to centers, Otterbein had one that seemed to look down at the basket when he got near it. Shoulders a mile wide and a chest so deep that he had to shoot from the foul line to keep from running out-of-bound with the ball. His name was Bowles.

Columbus Picks Shelby

While others are picking Anderson—We're still picking Shelbyville! And we doubt if anyone will ask us to give a reason.
—Columbus Republican

'TIS SAD, BUT TRUE

Well Gawze, Vincennes is now in the ash heap with Rushville and Newcastle.
—Newcastle Courier

GOSH, WE'RE GLAD THAT WE DIDN'T WIN.

How have the mighty fallen! Thousands of basketball fans of Indiana used to gather annually at the Coliseum of the state fairgrounds at Indianapolis to see the cavortings of such teams as Vincennes, Columbus, Bloomington, Muncie, Crawfordsville and others of like calibre. They'll gather together again, Friday and Saturday of this week, but this time they'll watch such teams as Liberty Center, Connersville, Otterbein, Logansport, Michigan City and North Manchester. It should be an interesting tournament if the players don't call time out too often to replace the supply of rubber bands about their waving locks.
—Muncie Press

A BASKETBALL GIANT

Tall boy, George Krueger takes the cake as being the sky scraper on the Richmond regional, and we will wager of the entire state. Six feet 5 1/2 in stocking feet.
—Richmond Item

After all is said and done, many of the supposedly "big teams" that didn't survive the regionals are doing the loud talking about the method of drawing in the tourneys. If the team couldn't stand the clip in the regionals, what chance would they have in the finals. Its best to get rid of 'em sooner than later. If they don't like Mr. Hsuan and his methods, let 'em move over to Passaic or some other state, and start on a record of their own.

New Orleans team has challenged Passaic for a game. Indiana is about the half way point, and a neutral floor could be obtained. Then while Passaic is here, let some Indiana team knock 'em off.

FAIRVIEW CLUB WILL TAKE ON MILROY HERE

If Enough Interest is Shown, Moscow Independents Will Be Booked For Game in Rushville

FAIRVIEW HAS GOOD RECORD

The Fairview Athletic club's basketball tossers, district champs, are going to play a few games through Rush county and the fans may get to see this fast bunch in action. This team has played 27 games and lost only three during the season, and scored 1163 points to their opponents 687 points.

They have played some of the best teams in the state, and on Wednesday night of next week will play in Rushville at the Modern Appliance building, meeting the Milroy Independent team. This team is composed of former high school stars, such as McKee, Ruddle, Osterling, Green and McCorkle. The latter two were on the milroy team this year.

It is believed that such a line-up will make the Fairview team exert themselves, and they will have their regular bunch of players, including Peters, Cook, Essex, Seales, Royalty, Patton, Reynolds, Darnell and Kendall.

If interest is sufficient in this game, Manager Cook of the Fairview team will make an effort to book the fast Moscow team here, and which is composed of the Tillison and Gosnell families.

The Rushville Romeos, play at Fairview tonight.

WISCONSIN NEARER A TIE

Defeats Iowa and is in Running For Big Ten Leadership

Madison, Wis., March 12—Wisconsin basketballers took one step nearer a tie for conference honors here last night when they defeated the Iowa five 36 to 26.

The Hawks led at the half, 15 to 13, but the work of Diebold and Farwell put the Badgers in the lead.

Should Wisconsin defeat Chicago on Saturday, a triple tie with Illinois, Chicago and Wisconsin would result. A win by Chicago would give that five a clear right to the top position.

No Dempsey-Wills Fight

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York March 12—Unless political conditions, as they pertain to and influence professional boxing, undergo a change in another year, Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills never will meet for the heavyweight championship.

It is known positively, regardless of much conversation to the contrary, that Dempsey and Wills cannot fight this year, and it is doubtful if a bout between them will be permitted next year. If they have not met at the end of 1925 they never will meet, because Wills, old now and past his best days, will be too far gone then.

Admitting that there may be some reasons for the outcry that is raised by race alarmists every time a Dempsey-Wills bout is mentioned, even prospectively, it will be regretted if Wills has to hang up his gloves without getting a chance at the title.

Wills, just because he had a fair claim to a crack at the championship should have been given an opportunity to at least find out that he wasn't good enough to be the champion.

Perhaps he would have won the title if he had been able to get a fight with Dempsey two or three years ago. He might have had a good chance then, because he was younger and better up on his game. The chance that he has to beat Dempsey now is very small, and in another year it will be virtually no chance at all.

While it is generally admitted that Wills has a right to try for the championship, there isn't a single good reason to believe that he can beat Dempsey. On the contrary, there are many reasons to take Dempsey's word that he would knock Wills out in three rounds.

Union and Washington Township Farmers To Stage Basketball Game

An honest to goodness basketball game, to be played between grown-ups, some probably who never saw a game, has been scheduled for Raleigh on the night of March 27, when the Union and Washington township farmers will stage the attraction.

The whole affair is the result of a challenge flung by the Union township farmers, and as the Washington farmers claim to be equally as good a basketball players, they accepted the challenge, and everything is now working like clock work.

The night of March 27 is the regular meeting night for the Washington township farm bureau, and the place up at Raleigh will be crowded to the limit. Each team will have about 20 members in uniform, and a regulation game will be played.

Each township has a girl that deserves a trip to Purdue and as funds are lacking, it was decided to hold the basketball game, and take up a collection and send a representative from each township.

The following comment on the game came in today from one of the men in charge of the affair:

The Union Township Farm Bureau basketball team will practice in Will McMillan's hay loft hereafter on account of the injury sustained by R. Guard Sherd Daubenspeck when he fell through the floor of Will Martin's barn into a temperamental sow's nest. Mr. Daubenspeck is doing nicely and it is hoped he will be in good form for the Union-Washington tournament to be held in Raleigh Gym March 27th.

Captain Howard Ewbank is holding elimination contests and reports the probable line up of the Union team as follows:

R. F. Joe Vandament, sub by Morton Gray
L. F. Chester Beaver, sub by Jake Wynn
C. Elbert Gordon sub by Jess Peters
R. G. Harry McMillin sub by Fred Bell
L. G. Homer Nash sub by Marshall Blackledge

This lineup is not final on account of the good form being shown by Jess Morris, Tom Bishop, Bert Eakins, J and O. Reese, Arthur Looney and Tom Richardson. There are many other good players that may hold some surprises but the captain is withholding their names.

Referees Rue Webb and Miles Cox assisted by W. A. Alexander and Louis Hiner, promise a fair decision.

The dope is that the game will be close but Ewbank is confident his team will win. We understand they are offering a little "odds."

Monthly Session of Rushville Parent-Teachers Association Held at Graham Building

TEACHERS ON THE PROGRAM

S. F. Cotton and Miss Gullion Emphasize Importance of Gymnastics—Scout Work Discussed

"Social Recreation," was the general topic discussed Tuesday afternoon by different members of the Parent-Teachers association meeting held in the assembly room of the Graham high school building at three o'clock. Judge Will M. Sparks presided over the meeting and several of the teachers discussed different phases of the topic.

Miss Katherine Wyatt, who has charge of the kindergarten work in the school, demonstrated her talk on "The Value of Play," with several little exercises by some of her students, which was very entertaining. D. R. Merrell, the local scout master and principal of the Haven's building, pointed out some interesting work the boy scouts are doing in this city, and the worthiness of the scout program, if all the members would live up to the rules and obligations of the scout program.

"Physical Training for the Adolescent Child," was the subject discussed by A. F. Cotton, who is in charge of the physical training in the schools, and he advocated the need of physical training among all the pupils of the Junior and Senior high school. He stated that all the pupils should have work in gymnastics at least once or twice a week. The Junior high school now has work in the gymnasium once a week but the Senior high school has none.

Miss Madeline Gullion, an instructor in the local high school, and coach for the girls' basketball team, gave a talk on "Play and Delinquency," pointing out also the need of physical training among the girls. She also expressed the belief that a dean for the girls would be a good thing in the high school.

Miss Nelle Casady, a local teacher, in giving the introductory speech, presented some statistics on how much was being spent among the school children for cosmetics, chewing gum, candy and other confections, in comparison to that spent for education. She stated that no one should complain when they say they have no money for education. She advocated that less be spent for these unnecessary things and more be spent on the child in obtaining his education.

As the closing feature of the program, several of the high school girls gave a pageant on the social life of the high school under the direction of Miss Helen Jaehne, which proved to be very entertaining.

Judge Will M. Sparks, president of the association, presided during the program.

CRANLEYS ARE SAFE IN NEW YORK

Story That Former Rushville People
Were Victims of Interurban Wreck
is Proved Untrue

MESSAGE FROM ROCHESTER

Rumor that James Cranley, Wife and Daughter Were Burned to Death
Feb. 2 Gains Wide Circulation

That Mr. and Mrs. James Cranley and infant daughter of Indianapolis, formerly of this county, were among the unidentified victims of the Union traction company wreck near Fortville, Ind., Saturday night, February 2, was a story that had gained wide circulation since Tuesday evening and which was not disproven late this afternoon, when the Daily Republican received an answer to a telegram inquiry, stating that Cranley and his wife and baby were stopping with his brother in Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Cranley and child have not been seen since the early part of the week the traction wreck occurred, and relatives have had no word from Mrs. Cranley, who was formerly Miss Mary Jane Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Anderson of Mays, since January 9, when Mrs. Cranley left home with her child while her parents were away.

Mr. Cranley at one time resided in Rushville, but most of the time since his marriage has been employed in Indianapolis. He worked in Caron's candy kitchen while a resident of this city.

The suspicion that Mr. and Mrs. Cranley and daughter might have been burned to death in the interurban wreck was conveyed to the Indianapolis News and an inquiry was made here late Tuesday to determine the whereabouts of Mrs. Cranley.

Mrs. Flora Anderson, her mother, stated last night that she had not seen nor heard from her daughter since January 9, when she left home without their knowledge, to join her husband in Indianapolis.

Inquiry at the Columbia cafe in Indianapolis, where Mrs. Cranley was employed, brought the information that she had not been employed there for six weeks, indicating that she had left that employment about the time of the wreck.

Mrs. Ozro Draper of near Occident north of Rushville, informed Mrs. Anderson that she saw Mr. and Mrs. Cranley and their child in the Traction Terminal building in Indianapolis either on Monday or Tuesday, January 28 or 29. This was the same week as the interurban wreck.

Mrs. Anderson called by telephone last night, Mrs. Buel Graham of Indianapolis, formerly Miss Mildred Madden of this city, a close friend of Mrs. Cranley, and found that she had not seen nor heard of her for two months.

Rushville friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cranley said that they had intended to go to Rochester, N. Y., where Mr. Cranley's relatives live, but it was thought strange that if they did go to Rochester, some word would have been received by some of their friends or relatives.

Mrs. Cranley had relatives at Anderson, Ind., and she and her husband lived there for a short time, it is said. For this reason it was regarded as probable that they might have been on the doomed interurban car which was bound for Anderson when it collided with a car going in the opposite direction.

The remains of four or five bodies of unidentified victims of the wreck have been buried at Anderson. There is also the skull of a baby which has never been identified and two baby rings, the ownership of which has never been determined. All of this fit into the story as it was unfolded.

Mrs. Cranley was a school teacher before her marriage and has taught at Webb school, southwest of Rushville, and Henderson and Osborne schools in Jackson township.

Mrs. Anna Nolan, widow of Richard Nolan, formerly of this city, died today at noon at her residence in Indianapolis, death resulting from cancer of the liver.

The deceased was a sister of Thomas Cauley of Kansas City, who lived here until recently. Funeral arrangements were not completed today, but will be held in Indianapolis and with burial in that city.

The deceased was well known in Rushville and has many friends living here. She is survived by four daughters and a son.

PRINCIPALS MEET THURSDAY NIGHT

BOTH TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

New Salem School Placed on Continuous Commission Basis, Making Three in the County

The principals of the county schools will be in session Thursday night in the office of B. D. Farthing, county superintendent for a special business session, during which time several matters will come before them.

Arrangements for the county music memory contest and the county Latin contest will be taken up, as these two school events are scheduled for the latter part of next week.

Plans for the annual county track and field day also will be discussed, and a date decided upon. The first meeting of this kind was held last spring, but rather late and several county high schools had closed and did not get to take part. This year it is planned to hold the event earlier, and every high school will have a chance to compete for honors in track and field events.

The New Salem school has been placed on a continuous commission basis, according to word received this morning from the state department, and following an inspection of the school recently by W. E. Waggoner. This makes three schools in the county on the continuous basis, with Manilla and Webb having been on before. Carriage will be on the same basis when their new building is completed.

A continuous commission for a school means that no further inspection will be necessary.

Who Died at Connersville

The funeral services for John Samuel Parker, who died Monday at noon at the home of his grand daughter, Mrs. Henry Ingram in Connersville, were held this morning at the Mays church and interment took place at the Blue River cemetery.

Mr. Parker was 82 years of age and was a former resident of Center township, this county. Fifty-two years ago last Christmas eve he was married to Miss Martha J. Kirkpatrick of this county, who survives him. Besides the widow he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Lillie Clemons of Indianapolis, four grandchildren and one brother, James Parker of Williamstown and two great grand children. He was also a member of Phoenix Lodge No. 62, F. & A. M., of this city, having been a member since 1865. He was also a member of the Sunday M. E. church.

HODGES BRANCH SUITS SENT TO HENRY COUNTY

Eleven Cases Against Big Four Railroad, Each For $1,000 Damages,
To Be Tried at Newcastle

TWO NEW SUITS DOCKETED

Eleven law suits, all against the Big Four Railroad and with eleven plaintiffs, seeking $1,000 judgments for damages, were venued today to Henry county for trial, following the agreement in court recently when one of the cases was scheduled for trial and delayed on motion for a change from the county.

The suit of Amos Baxter against the railroad was scheduled for trial last week, and the defendant stated that if the cases were continued, changes of venue would be asked, and this resulted today in all of the cases being sent to Henry county.

The eleven plaintiffs, who are property owners in the northwest part of Rushville, allege that the railroad constructed a bridge over Hodges Branch, and that the bridge is not big enough to accommodate the water during flood time, and that the water backs up on the property of the eleven plaintiffs. The cases were filed in July, 1920, and since then several attempts have been

SAYS FALL TOLD HIM TO TELL FALSEHOOD

McLean Testifies Former Cabinet
Member Asked Him to Say $100,- 000 Loan Was Made in Cash

PUBLISHER CROSS-EXAMINED

Washington, March 12—Albert B. Fall asked E. B. McLean to tell the senate oil committee the false story he recited concerning his $100,000 loan, McLean revealed today under cross-examination when he took the stand.

Fall called McLean to Atlantic City and asked him to say the $100,000 loan was made in cash, McLean said.

"He told me it had nothing to do with Teapot Dome," McLean added. It was in according to this request from an old friend who was plainly ill that he got himself involved in the oil scandal, McLean said. He denied, with all the emphasis he could demand, that he was involved in any other way.

Showing signs of deep nervousness, the millionaire publisher appealed to the committee to question him about irrelevant matters as he sought to explain the flood of code messages that recently have featured the committee hearings.

SAYS COMPANY C IS NOT DISBANDED

Capt. Wm. B. Brann, Expects Order to Muster Out Rushville Guard
Unit Next Tuesday Night

REASON FOR THE ACTION

Failure of Guardsmen to Report For Drill Assigned by Captain—Ac-
counts For Robberies

Company C, Rushville's national guard unit, over which there has been much speculation recently, held their regular meeting last night, and members of the company were asked to bring with them all equipment that had been loaned them by the government.

The company has been mustered out of service, according to an Indianapolis dispatch, but according to Captain Brann, no date has been received by him for the disbandment of the company, and he expects that the official work will be done next Tuesday night.

Captain Brann stated today that the reports from Indianapolis to the effect that the company here had been mismanaged by its officers, were untrue and that the reason that the company was mustered out of service was because of the fact that the members failed to report for weekly meetings, and that the attendance at the drills has reduced the standing of the local company.

The fact that the company is an open building, and is easily reached by robbers, is given as the reason for the thefts, as a considerable amount of the equipment has disappeared in the past few months.

When the company here is mustered out, Captain Brann expects to be attached to the state staff of officers in the national guard, he said.

WATSON NAMED CHAIRMAN

To Conduct Bureau of Internal Revenue Investigation

Washington, March 12—Senator James E. Watson, Indiana, was today appointed chairman of the senate committee to investigate the bureau of internal revenue.

The appointment of the Indiana Senator came as the result of the passage of the Conzen resolution, which called for such a probe of that department.

Just what trouble is believed to be hidden in the revenue department, has not been disclosed.

Washington, March 12—The Daugherty investigating committee will hold its first open session at four o'clock this afternoon, Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, announced.

Brookhart declined to state what would be the subject of the first session or who the witness would be but said that "an important matter" would be under discussion.

Information obtained by Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, on a mysterious out of town trip, is believed to be responsible.

SURPLUS IN DOG FUND DISTRIBUTED

Balance Held by Each Township
Trustee, Turned Over to County
Auditor and Pro-rated Back

SCHOOL ENUMERATION BASIS

Fund Derived From Dog Taxes And Used During Year to Pay Claims
—Balance Goes to Schools

The surplus dog fund has been distributed among the townships and school corporations of the county, it was announced today by Phil Wilk, county auditor, and checks have been mailed to the township trustees and to the treasurer of the Rushville school corporation.

The law provides that the township trustees shall turn over to the county auditor by the first Monday in March all of the money left in the dog fund, which is made up of dog taxes collected by the township assessors, and that the auditor shall distribute it among the townships and school corporations on the basis of the number of children of school age enumerated.

Rushville, although showing no money turned in from the surplus dog fund, receives the most back, because of having a larger number of school children. Receipts from dog taxes in Rushville city pass through the hands of the Rushville township trustee.

The trustees pay out of the fund during the year, all claims for livestock killed by dogs, and retain $100 to meet claims until the spring dog taxes begin coming in, when they turn over the surplus to the auditor.

Rushville school city, with 1284 persons of school age enumerated, received $875.74, and $164.88 went to the state as its five percent of the total distributed—$3,297.50—as provided by the law.

The amount each township trustee turned over to the auditor and the amount received back in the distribution is as follows:

Township	Paid In	Received
Ripley	90.00	308.28
Posey	346.00	238.03
Walker	376.00	196.43
Orange	238.60	162.33
Anderson	412.40	223.03
Rushville	320.00	204.61
Jackson	266.00	92.08
Center	366.50	161.64
Washington	3.50	165.74
Union	340.00	210.07
Noble	148.50	160.96
Richland	390.00	133.68

The enumeration by townships, on the basis of which the distribution was made is as follows:

Ripley, 452; Posey, 349; Walker, 288; Orange, 238; Anderson, 357; Rushville, 300; Jackson 135; Center, 237; Washington, 243; Union, 308; Noble 236; Richland 196; Rushville city, 1248.

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT

Roy Whittaker has filed an affidavit in Justice Stech court against Jesse Nicholson, charging him with assault and battery. The defendant will be tried on the charge Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. The suit for possession filed by James Dugan against John Colvin, has been dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff.

EAGLES HOLD BANQUET

The Rushville Eagles held a smoker and talk-feast Tuesday night at their lodge home in West First street which was also followed by a chicken banquet. Seventy-five members of the lodge were present, and a delightful evening was spent.

CURT REFUSAL TO PLEA IS EXPECTED

Congress Not Likely to Grant Request For 25 Percent Cut in '23
Income Taxes

MADE BY PRES. COOLIDGE

Unless Congress Passes Resolution,
Treasury Will be Powerless to Re-
bate, Officials Say

Washington, March 12—The 25 percent tax cut asked by President Coolidge would mean a saving of $458,888,241 to the taxpayers if their incomes in 1923 were the same as in 1922.

In 1923 tax payers paid a total of $1,835,552,966.22 on their incomes for 1922. If the retroactive rebate goes through congress, taxpayers could lop off one entire quarterly installment.

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 12—A curt refusal today appeared certain to be congress' reply to President Coolidge's urgent request for an immediate 25 percent reduction in 1923 income taxes.

As a result taxpayers must pay their full amount for taxes. Unless congress acts the treasury department will be powerless to rebate officials there stated.

House leaders were unmoved by Mr. Coolidge's request yesterday urging immediate adoption of the resolution permitting taxpayers to deduct a quarter of the tax. He pointed out that many of them had delayed making returns in expectation of the reduction.

Chairman Greene, chairman of the house ways and means committee declared today that the plan is impossible. We cannot pass the resolution in time to affect the taxpayer who must begin paying on Saturday. The house has already adopted the provision in the tax bill and is unwilling to consider it as a separate measure.

Some members of the house, including Representative Garner, Texas, said the president waited with his message until it was too late for his action to be had.

The house's unwillingness to act is based on the fear of many members that if the 1923 taxes were reduced, the president would veto the tax bill. While the 1923 reduction clause is in the bill they feel he will not dare veto it.

Senator Smoot and other members of the senate finance committee said the senate probably would adopt the resolution but that it was clearly impossible in view of the opposition in the house to get separate legislation through by Saturday.

Congressional leaders and officials at the internal revenue bureau agreed there was no way for the treasury to provide for a rebate by regulation.

"The taxes are fixed by law and the treasury has no power to change them in any way," it was stated on behalf of Secretary Mellon. "If congress does not provide for the reduction, there is nothing for the internal revenue bureau to do but collect the full tax."

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Frank and Anna Carroll Estranged
Due To Divorce Suit

Elkhart, Ind., March 12—Waiting for Anna Carroll, his estranged wife as she went to work at a local factory today, Frank Carroll, 40, shot and instantly killed her and then turned the revolver on himself.

He died a few minutes later. His wife had brought suit for divorce a week ago and had taken a position in a factory to support herself. Carroll had been arrested several times in recent months for intoxication. Officials said he had been drinking heavily last night and early today.

GUARANTEE OF BUSINESS INSURED BY CONTRACTS

Successful co-operatives are founded on an enforceable contract between the association and the member, by which the member is bound to sell and deliver his commodity to the association over a period of years, and the association is bound to receive, grade, store ship and sell the product to the best possible advantage, wherever a market can be found, and to pay the member for his wheat the average price received, less the usual cost of operation.

The contracts are made binding and for a period of years so that the offices may be properly established and competent men secured to carry on the business. The "co-op" with a binding contract has a guaranteed volume of business for a certain length of time.

SHORT ROAD TO MARKET: LARGER RETURN OFFERED

The net result of co-operative marketing as observed over many years of successful operation has been to set up a better, shorter and more economical method of distribution, to shorten the distance between the producer and the consumer, to bring back to the producer these means, a larger proportion of the consumer's dollar.

Add to this the fact that to bring the farming half of the population a larger return and consequence a greater buying power, creates a greater demand and a better market for the services and the products of the other half and you have summed-up the benefit of co-operative marketing to every portion of the economic structure.

Obituary

Levi R. Retherford died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Laura Jones, in Rushville, Indiana, March 8th, 1924.

He was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky on January 26th, 1835. He was the oldest child of David and Elizabeth Hall Retherford.

To him and wife were born seven children, five of whom are living. Their names in the order of their births are as follows: Laura Jones, Ed D. Retherford, Robert R. Retherford (deceased), Hettie Sutton (deceased), Jess Retherford, Ferdinand P. Retherford and Nelle Brown. He is also survived by ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Woods of Muncie also survives.

His parents emigrated from Bourbon County, Kentucky in the fall of 1836 to Decatur county, Indiana and removed from there to Rush County in the spring of 1837. The incidents of his life were such as fell to the early settlers of that period.

He was married to Nancy Elizabeth Minor on October 19th, 1856. She was born near Paris, Illinois on June 22nd, 1839 and moved to Rush County when about nine years of age, completing a married life of 67 years 4 months, and 19 days. They probably had lived together longer than any other couple in Rush County. He moved from his farm, near the corporate limits of Rushville, in 1902, and had made this city his residence from that time.

He and his wife united with the Christian Church in Rushville during the ministry of Daniel Franklin in 1858; they being the oldest members of that congregation. His father and mother were charter members of the local Christian Church. They had previously been members of the Concord Church. He had been a continuous subscriber and reader of the Christian Standard almost from its beginning, and a constant reader of the Bible, thus being well grounded in the tenets of the Christian Faith.

We sorrow not as those who have no hope to meet again. We renew our vows to so live that when the death summons comes to us, that we may be ready to join the loved ones who have gone before.

The Ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold an exchange Saturday morning at the Gantner and Gregg room in West Second street.

IN MEMORIAM

Little Mary Avis, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Birney Piper of Orange township, Rush county died at their home March 9th, 1924, and was buried in the McCarty cemetery, leaving father, mother and sister, Pauline.

The little crib is empty now,
The little clothes laid by,
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arm doth lie.
There was an angel band in heaven,
That was not quite complete,
So God took our darling, Mary Avis
To fill the vacant seat.

Muscle Shoals

The McKensie bill, providing for the acceptance of Henry Ford's bid on Muscle Shoals, which has been passed by the house, is going to find rough seas in the senate, because opponents of the automobile manufacturer, who do not favor permitting any man to acquire such an outlay of property at government expense, have already raised a barrier across the path of the measure which has been approved in the lower house.

The barrier is in the form of a bill proposing a "super-power" system to conserve, develop and operate all natural resources. It is the answer of the public ownership group to the Ford program for Muscle Shoals.

An examination of the Ford offer shows very little to recommend it, especially when it is compared with the Hill bill, pending in the house which is based on an offer of $15,000,000 for what Ford agrees to pay only $5,000,000.

In addition to this, the United States leases for 100 years the water-power plants to Ford, with privilege to renew at the end of the per-

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Oswatonic, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell."

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything."

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day these circulars came to be Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui."

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months."

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman."

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui?" I certainly am. And I am sure there is no other medicine for women than Cardui.

iod, which is in complete disregard of the federal waterpower act, which provides that leases shall not be granted for more than fifty years.

The United States agrees, under the terms of the McKensie bill, to deed to Ford, nitrate plant No. 1, costing $12,888,000; nitrate plant No. 2, including 90,000 horsepower steam plant costing $66,252,000; the Waco quarry, costing $1,303,000 and a new 40,000 horsepower steam plant and transmission line to be erected by the government at a cost of $3,472,000. This represents a total outlay of $83,915,000, for which Ford would pay the paltry sum of $5,000,000, and in addition the United States agrees to maintain nitrate plant No. 2 at a cost of $100,000 a year.

The bill does not attempt to regulate any rates that Ford may charge, with the exception of fertilizer, and Ford is not compelled to make any promise as to amount or cost of power.

Mr. Ford's fortune has already become an intolerable burden, unless given a productive outlet by scores of millions; and still he is trying to add to it. He can not now personally touch his undivided profits without touching his undivided profits without paying to the government. At least half of them in additional personal income taxes.

So he turns to Muscle Shoals, promising to throw the Ford millions behind the upbuilding of a great city "75 miles long" if he receives the wonder property.

Mr. Ford's only promise to the people is to "limit" himself to 8 percent on the possible 100,000 horsepower necessary to manufacture 40,000 tons of nitrate content fertilizer. The remaining 750,000 horsepower would belong to him for the glorification of Ford City, the Ford industries and the Ford fortune.

Given Muscle Shoals on his terms, Mr. Ford's fortune of today, and all of the fabulous fortunes of history would fade into insignificance.

Passing It On

A wage earner—one of apparently very moderate income—wrote to a Congressman urging reduction of the high surtax rates of the present income tax law. The Congressman replied with a very caustic letter asking the wage earner what interest he had in the reduction of the high surtax rates since his income must be so small as not to be affected by the rates on large incomes.

The question seems plausible on its face and yet anyone who stops to consider the matter for more than one minute will readily understand that the wage earner knew what he was talking about and the Congressman did not.

As a matter of fact the small wage earner is not at all interested in the reduction of the income tax rates on small incomes for he pays no income tax directly. His income in most instances is so small as not to exceed his exemptions. But the small wage earner pays indirectly the high surtax rates on large incomes. The manufacturer, the professional man, the corporation operating large transportation or public service concerns, pays a heavy income tax and adds that tax to the cost of doing business and necessarily that cost is included in the prices charged for goods or services. The consumer or the patron pays the tax in the end.

This is a fact that no one will question when he analyzes the effect of taxation, and yet it is a fact that a great many people overlook.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican
Friday, March 12, 1909

Judge Will Sparks will be one of the three judges of the debate to be held at Richmond tonight between teams representing Wabash and Earlham colleges.

Nick Tompkins has signed with the Cambridge City baseball team and will alternate in the pitchers' box and on first base. Tompkins is a first class ball player with a reputation and will strengthen the team. Omer Pea will play short stop on the same team. Rushville will also be represented on the Connersville team as Ed Carter and Windy Morgan will probably play in that city.

Rushville people seemed to be in bad at the Lackey horse sale in Cambridge City yesterday. Three men, residents of this city, who are working at the Lackey barn, during the sale, were injured, one of them seriously. Charles Baker was kicked by a vicious animal and considerably bruised up. Russell King, son of Sheriff and Mrs. Will King fell from a horse while it was running at a rapid gait and suffered a broken arm. Tom Bodine entered a stable to bring a horse out to show it, when the animal turned on him and probably would have killed him, had someone not come to his assistance.

The following are the ruling prices in Rushville market, corrected to date March 12, 1909: Wheat, 1.14; corn, 60; Clover seed, 4.50; chickens, 9; Eggs, 15; butter 20; cattle 3.50 to 6.50; hogs 4 to 7.10; sheep 2.50 to 4.75.

Arthur Getty of Silver Lake, Ind., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Feudner today. Mr. Getty was here to purchase a Rush county driving horse.

Hugh Mauzy will attend the joint debate between Earlham and Wabash colleges at Richmond tonight.

W. O. Frazee has purchased the M. S. Shropshire farm of eighty acres south of this city, giving $110 an acre for same.

Miss Cassie Ward of North Sexton street is slowly improving from her recent illness.

Mrs. John Wallace has recovered from an attack of the grippe at her home in West Second street.

A deal is pending whereby Ralph Payne contemplates purchasing the Lawrence Geraghty residence in North Harrison street. Mr. Payne will make extensive improvements if the deal is closed. Mr. Geraghty will build a modern home on west Eighth street lots in the rear of his present home.

MOVIES

Gown Last Five Minutes

Created to be worn by Dorothy Mackaill in Sam Wood's newest Paramount production, "The Next Corner," the gown enjoyed just five minutes-life before it became a wreck.

In "The Next Corner," opening a two day engagement at the Princess theatre today, Dorothy Mackaill plays the role of a wife who has lived alone in Paris for three years. During her husband's necessary absence in the Argentine, she becomes interested in a Spaniard. Upon her husband's return to Paris, she accepts an invitation to visit the Spaniard's nobleman at his lodge in the Pyrenees before she parts with him forever. When she arrives, she finds that she has been tricked and that she is the only guest where she expected to find a house-party.

She prepares to leave at once but the Spaniard throws open a case—storm window which has broken over the mountain prevents her return to the station. The wind drives the rain through the window, ruining the gown which Dorothy Mackaill wears.

Made of the new material known as spun glass velvet, the gown is of rare Lanvin green. According to its designer, the material has the qualities of velvet and weighs no more than silk.

The featured players in "The Next Corner" are Conway Tearle, Lon Chaney, Dorothy Mackaill, Ricardo Cortez and Louise Dresser.

Constance Talmadge Here

All the world loves to laugh, and all the discriminating motion picture devotees love Constance Talmadge, and that is why the Seiznick Distributing Corporation has consented to revive the scintillating comedy, "A Lady's Name." This screen success, which was adapted from Cyril Harcourt's play by the gifted scenarist, Julia Crawford Ivers, was skillfully directed by the capable Walter Edwards, and the cast contains prominent actors and actresses, whose names have long been associated with well-earned popularity. "A Lady's Name" is at the Castle today and Thursday.

The delightful and accomplished Constance Talmadge never had a more suitable vehicle for her talents than this sparkling photoplay, which gives her every opportunity to display her versatility. As the novel's sweetheart and cook amusing, and appealingly winsome as the fiancée of the butler's master.

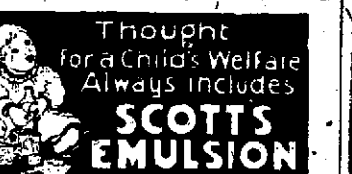

Harrison Ford, who plays the male lead, presents a well finished interpretation of the part, and Emory Johnson is most convincing as the priggish fiancée. The suffragette role is excellently and amusingly played by Vera Doria while Lillian Leighton as the sentimental cook and Zasu Pitts as the maid, live up to their reputations of clever actresses.

The entire production of "A Lady's Name" is a criticism and satisfies the most fastidious taste. It is not only well worth the original time, effort and expense which was lavished on it, but is deserving of the additional money and labor which is attendant upon its revival.

HITTIN' 'EM

— AND —

MISSIN' 'EM

Another Boquet Blows In Milroy, Ind.

Dear Hittin' 'Em—

Despite the best efforts of us all, basketball is a thing of history in Rush county; but I feel it not amiss to bring up the subject since we are still "picking" a state winner.

In behalf of the team and Milroy fans, I wish to compliment you on your column and thank you for the courtesy extended to us through it. Please extend my regards to the other coaches and teams of the county. When we have been unfortunate you have encouraged, and when we have won, you have given us credit. In all your good wishes have, we feel, been sincere and as hearty as could be expected of anyone toward a traditional rival.

With the best personal regards and wishes for you, your column and the Rushville team, I am,

Sincerely Yours,
PAUL ROYALTY

These are kind words, Mr. Royalty. Thanks very much. It has been the policy of this column all year to deal with all teams as equally as possible, and to help the schools become closer friends. We were certainly sorry that Milroy couldn't have won from Connersville in the final game, because we feel sure that you could have piloted your boys through the regional with more ease than Connersville, and besides it would have helped the interest in the county for the Milroy team. Better luck next time.

The days of this column are getting fewer and fewer, and if any contraband has anything to speak of, it is quick, or as the old sayin' is, forever keep your peace.

The city council of Shelbyville meets every Friday night—that is it used to before the basketball season. They have been holding short sessions all winter so that members could attend the games. Business will soon be back to normal.

Everything But Move The Court House

If Shelbyville wins the state tournament, the town of Homer in this county should celebrate in big style, and what is more, Rushville would help 'em do it.

If you want a new gym in Rushville next year, now is the time to get busy. Talk to the members of the school board—Russ Casady, "Doc" Wyant and Mrs. Aldridge. Let's put it over.

ALL THE REST ARE MERELY "DUBS"

Muncie is out of the running for the title. So are Vincennes, Columbus and several others of the stronger ones. At the state tournament this year will be seen Richmond, beaten by Muncie 20 points, which goes by virtue of a soft schedule in the regionals; Rochester, North Manchester, Fort Wayne, Liberty, Center, Logansport, Connersville, and some more so-called "dubs". All thanks to the wise gentlemen who make up the board of representatives which controls the Indiana High School athletic association. What a tournament that's going to be with only a few good teams. Anderson, Shelbyville, Bedford, Frankfort and Martinsville.

—Muncie Press

First, Maybe The Last Time

For the first time, under the present plan of elimination, the Connersville high school basketball team will be represented in the final tournament play at Indianapolis, as a result of their victories at the regional in Richmond. A state championship will be crowned at the finals in Indianapolis Friday and Saturday of this week.

—Connersville News

The Roll Call Has Dwindled

But six teams that were in the state final high school net tournament last spring at Indianapolis will be represented in the 1924 classic next Friday and Saturday. They are: Morgan, (Richmond), Frankfort, Franklin, Martinsville, Anderson, Bedford.

The new teams listed in the 1924 event are: South Side (Fl. Wayne) Michigan City, Wiley (Terre Haute), Rochester, Shelbyville, North Manchester, Logansport, Otterbein, Connersville, and Liberty Center.

The Ikemiks Ought to Eat This

When it comes to centers, Otterbein had one that seemed to look down at the basket when he got near it. Shoulders a mile wide and a chest so deep that he had to shoot from the foul line to keep from running out-of-bounds with the ball. His name was Bowles.

—Frankfort Times

Columbus Picks Shelby

While others are picking Anderson—We're still picking Shelbyville! And we doubt if anyone will ask us to give a reason.

—Columbus Republican

'TIS SAD, BUT TRUE

Well Gawze, Vincennes is now in the ash heap with Rushville and Newcastle.

—Newcastle Courier

GOSH, WE'RE GLAD THAT WE DIDN'T WIN.

How have the mighty fallen! Thousands of basketball fans of Indiana used to gather annually at the Coliseum of the state fairgrounds at Indianapolis to see the enervations of such teams as Vincennes, Columbus, Bloomington, Muncie, Crawfordsville and others of like calibre. They'll gather together again, Friday and Saturday of this week, but this time they'll watch such teams as Liberty Center, Connersville, Otterbein, Logansport, Michigan City and North Manchester. It should be an interesting tournament if the players don't call time out too often to replace the supply of rubber bands about their waving locks.

—Muncie Press

A BASKETBALL GIANT

Tall boy, George Krueger takes the cake as being the sky scraper on the Richmond regional, and we will wager of the entire state. Six feet 5 1/2 in stocking feet.

—Richmond Item

After all is said and done, many of the supposedly "big teams" that didn't survive the regionals are doing the loud talking about the method of drawing in the tournaments. If the team couldn't stand the clip in the regionals, what chance would they have in the finals. Its best to get rid of 'em sooner than later. If they don't like Mr. Isaacs and his methods, let 'em move over to Passaic or some other state, and start on a record of their own.

—Muncie Press

New Orleans team has challenged Passaic for a game. Indiana is about the half way point, and a neutral floor could be obtained. Then while Passaic is here, let some Indiana team knock 'em off.

FAIRVIEW CLUB WILL TAKE ON MILROY HERE

If Enough Interest is Shown, Moscow Independents Will Be Booked For Game in Rushville

FAIRVIEW HAS GOOD RECORD

The Fairview Athletic club's basketball tossers, district champs, are going to play a few games through Rush county and the fans may get to see this fast bunch in action. This team has played 27 games and lost only three during the season, and scored 1163 points to their opponents 687 points.

They have played some of the best teams in the state, and on Wednesday night of next week will play in Rushville at the Modern Appliance building, meeting the Milroy Independent team. This team is composed of former high school stars, such as McKee, Ruddle, Osterling, Green and McCorkle. The latter two were on the milroy team this year.

It is believed that such a line-up will make the Fairview team exert themselves, and they will have their regular bunch of players, including Peters, Cook, Essex, Seales, Royalty, Patton, Reynolds, Darnell and Kendall.

If interest is sufficient in this game, Manager Cook of the Fairview team will make an effort to book the fast Moscow team here, and which is composed of the Tillison and Gosnell families.

The Rushville Romeos, play at Fairview tonight.

WISCONSIN NEARER A TIE

Defeats Iowa and is in Running For Big Ten Leadership

Madison, Wis., March 12—Wisconsin basketballers took one step nearer a tie for conference honors here last night when they defeated the Iowa five 36 to 26.

The Hawks led at the half, 15 to 13, but the work of Diebold and Farwell put the Badgers in the lead.

Should Wisconsin defeat Chicago on Saturday, a triple tie with Illinois, Chicago and Wisconsin would result. A win by Chicago would give that five a clear right to the top position.

No Dempsey-Wills Fight

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York March 12—Unless political conditions, as they pertain to and influence professional boxing, undergo a change in another year, Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills never will meet for the heavyweight championship.

It is known positively, regardless of much conversation to the contrary, that Dempsey and Wills cannot fight this year, and it is doubtful if a bout between them will be permitted next year. If they have not met at the end of 1925 they never will meet, because Wills, old now and past his best days, will be too far gone then.

Admitting that there may be some reasons for the outcry that is raised by race alarmists every time a Dempsey-Wills bout is mentioned, even prospectively, it will be regretted if Wills has to hang up his gloves without getting a chance at the title.

Wills, just because he had a fair claim to a crack at the championship should have been given an opportunity to at least find out that he wasn't good enough to be the champion.

Perhaps he would have won the title if he had been able to get a fight with Dempsey two or three years ago. He might have had a good chance then, because he was younger and better up on his game. The chance that he has to beat Dempsey now is very small, and in another year it will be virtually no chance at all.

While it is generally admitted that Wills has a right to try for the championship, there isn't a single good reason to believe that he can beat Dempsey. On the contrary, there are many reasons to take Dempsey's word that he would knock Wills out in three rounds.

Union and Washington Township Farmers To Stage Basketball Game

An honest to goodness basketball game, to be played between grown-ups, some probably who never saw a game, has been scheduled for Raleigh on the night of March 27, when the Union and Washington township farmers will stage the attraction.

The whole affair is the result of a challenge flung by the Union township farmers, and as the Washington farmers claim to be equally as good a basketball players, they accepted the challenge, and everything is now working like clock work.

The night of March 27 is the regular meeting night for the Washington township farm bureau, and the place up at Raleigh will be crowded to the limit. Each team will have about 20 members in uniform, and a regulation game will be played.

Each township has a girl that deserves a trip to Purdue and as funds are lacking, it was decided to hold the basketball game, and take up a collection and send a representative from each township.

The following comment on the game came in today from one of the men in charge of the affair:

The Union Township Farm Bureau basketball team will practice in Will McMillan's hay loft hereafter on account of the injury sustained by R. Guard, Sherd Daubenspeck when he fell through the floor of Will McMillan's barn into a temperamental sow's nest. Mr. Daubenspeck is doing nicely and it is hoped he will be in good

Conservative

This conservative but smart dress varies a little from the straight up and down policy. The collar is finished with a straight band and the cuffs with circular cuffs. The small pocket offers a parking spot for one of the colorful handkerchiefs that are the mode.

and honor conferred upon the local girl, is of interest to her many friends here.

The choir of the First Presbyterian church will hold their regular rehearsal Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the parlors of the church.

During the business meeting of the Y. P. C. U. held Tuesday evening at the First United Presbyterian church, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Marie Dudgeon, president; Miss Goldie Jessup, vice-president; Dorothy Whitaker, secretary; Miss Julia McKibben, treasurer; Elvin Fowl, assistant secretary and treasurer. Following the business period a social hour was enjoyed, during which games were played and refreshments were served.

The Home of Mrs. Walter Capper of Paimouth was prettily decorated with bouquets of carnations and potted plants Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Capper entertained the members of the Glenside Sorosis club. A majority of the members and three guests, Mrs. Jacob Gross, Mrs. E. H. Hackleman and Mrs. Dora Tindler, were present.

A splendid program was given on Gene Stratton Porter. Mrs. Nelle Murphy gave a talk on "The Life of Porter," and Mrs. J. T. Walther reviewed his last book, "The White Flag," in a very interesting manner. At the close of the program and during an informal social hour, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The club will observe guest day Tuesday, March 18 at the Elks Club rooms in this city and arrangements are being made for a clever program to be rendered at that time.

FINDS FOR DEFENDANT

A suit on an account of John C. Groub & Co., against Henry McMahon, filed in Justice Stech's court, was decided today in favor of the defendant, who was not held liable for the account, and the costs in the case were assessed against the plaintiff.

Columbus—Former Bartholomew county residents in southern California have organized a club. The club has a membership of 100 and plans a first social affair March 23.

Woman's Secret Charm

In perfect health lies the secret of woman's charm which makes her radiate cheer and happiness wherever she goes. No one enjoys listening to the aches, pains and woes of an ailing, nervous irritable woman, and her condition is plainly stamped upon every feature. The most effective remedy for woman's ailments ever discovered has proved to be Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women are soon restored to health by its use and acquire the charm that health alone can give.

RECREATION IS MEETING TOPIC

Monthly Session of Rushville Parent-Teachers Association Held at Graham Building

TEACHERS ON THE PROGRAM

S. F. Cotton and Miss Guillion Emphasize Importance of Gymnastics—Scout Work Discussed

"Social Recreation," was the general topic discussed Tuesday afternoon by different members of the Parent-Teacher's association meeting held in the assembly room of the Graham high school building at three o'clock. Judge Will M. Sparks presided over the meeting and several of the teachers discussed different phases of the topic.

Miss Katherine Wyatt, who has charge of the kindergarten work in the school, demonstrated her talk on "The Value of Play," with several little exercises by some of her students, which was very entertaining. D. K. Merrell, the local scout master and principal of the Havens building, pointed out some interesting work the boy scouts are doing in this city, and the worthiness of the scout program, if all the members would live up to the rules and obligations of the scout program.

"Physical Training for the Adolescent Child," was the subject discussed by A. F. Cotton, who is in charge of the physical training in the schools, and he advocated the need of physical training among all the pupils of the Junior and Senior high school. He stated that all the pupils should have work in gymnastics at least once or twice a week. The Junior high school now has work in the gymnasium once a week but the Senior high school has none.

Miss Madeline Gulien, an instructor in the local high school, and coach for the girl's basketball team, gave a talk on "Play and Delinquency," pointing out also the need of physical training among the girls. She also expressed the belief that a dean for the girls would be a good thing in the high school.

Miss Nelle Casady, a local teacher, in giving the introductory speech, presented some statistics on how much was being spent among the school children for cosmetics, chewing gum, candy and other confections, in comparison to that spent for education. She stated that no one should complain when they say they have no money for education. She advocated that less be spent for these unnecessary things and more be spent on the child in obtaining his education.

As the closing feature of the program, several of the high school girls gave a pageant on the social life of the high school under the direction of Miss Helen Jaehne, which proved to be very entertaining.

Judge Will M. Sparks, president of the association, presided during the program.

HODGES BRANCH SUIT SENT TO HENRY COUNTY

Two new suits have been docketed in the circuit court. One is a petition for real estate, filed by Thomas B. Gary against John T. Clark, et al., and the other complaint is filed by the Peoples National bank against Andrew J. Jackson, a suit on a note, demanding $200 judgment.

Petersburg—At a meeting of the city council, the salary of Fred Whitlock, mayor of this new city, was fixed at $400 a year, with $600 additional for acting as city judge.
